After independence, the long-felt need for a college at Marthandam resulted in the starting of the Christian College in June 1964 by the Kanyakumari Diocese of the Church of South India. With the permission of Madras University, the Pre-University course was started in 1964. From 1966, the college was an affiliated institution of the Madurai University. In June 1984, the College was renamed as Nesamony Memorial Christian College in recognition of the yeoman services rendered by the late Thiru. A.
