

Handout for Cambridge English under Naan Muthalvan A1

Unit 7

- a. For nouns that can't be counted we ask: How much?
- b. For nouns that can be counted we ask: How many? A lot of means a large amount or number of Exercise 1 . In some of these sentences much is incorrect. Change much to many or a lot (of) wherever necessary. Write 'okay' if the sentence is correct.

- 1. We spend much money in Singapore.
- 2. Sonia drinks much tea in the office.
- 3. There is much salt in the food made in our canteen.
- 4. Much taxi drivers drive their cars fast.
- 5. My boss travels much.

Exercise 2 Give five examples for countable and uncountable nouns.

Unit 8

Requirements and abilities at work

Exercise 1

- 1. A _____ needs to be able to type well and fast.
- 2. A _____ is able to speak many languages.
- 3. A _____ needs to be able to manage his/her company.
- 4. A _____ is able to advise clients.
- 5. A _____ is able to work in a team.

Exercise 2. Write sentences using the words in the bracket (careful, safe, calm, comfortable, polite)

Exercise 3 Define adverb and write five words that end with -ly. When we talk about rules we use must or mustn't. Exercise 4 Write 4 sentences using must and mustn't (2 sentences for must and 2 sentences for mustn't)